Starting a Campus Support Program for SEFC: Identifying Your Stakeholders

What current resources exist?
- Identify programs that may already support SEFC, including TRIO programs, First Generation programs at your campus
- Identify resources within your community that may work directly with these students, such as:
  - Community Based Care Agencies/Independent Living Agencies
  - Non-profit organizations

Who are the key stakeholders that should be a part of the conversation?
Identify a representative from the following areas:
- Academic Advising
- Controller’s Office
- Dean of Students
- Financial Aid
- Housing
- Health Services/Counseling
- Career Services
- Community Partners