Leading Academic Advisors Post-Pandemic

NACADA Annual Conference – Session #38

Thursday, October 7th, 2021
Welcome!

Today’s session is designed to be an open forum where advising administrators are afforded space to discuss and reflect on the past eighteen months.

Goal to provide opportunities for academic advising administrators to connect, learn & share.

Slides have been uploaded to the conference website...you may want to use these questions/prompts with staff back at your institution!
Your Facilitators: Greg Mason & Tara Warden

- Director, Advising & Certification
  - College of Education

- Assistant Vice Provost
  - Advising and Academic Services

PennState

UNIVERSITY OF CINCINNATI

ONACADA | THE GLOBAL COMMUNITY FOR ACADEMIC ADVISING
What was your role like on March 1st, 2020?
Question 1:

What was the most challenging aspect of being an advising administrator during the pandemic?
Question 2: Was there an 'unintended opportunity' that developed?
Question 3:

What is one lesson or takeaway from your time operating remotely during the pandemic?
Question 4:
How will your work change in the coming months and years?
Question 5:
What aspects of this post-pandemic shift are exciting or invigorating?

Frightening or troubling?
Thank you for attending... and your participation!

How will you take what you have learned today back to your work?